

Graphic design

Course outcome

- Students will understand the fundamental principles of design, including colour theory, typography, and composition.
- Students will be able to effectively use Adobe Photoshop.
- Students will develop their own unique design style
- Students will be able to create visual elements, such as logos, icons, and graphics, using various software and techniques.