

Programme Specific Outcome

BA History, Economics, Political Science (HEP)

- The student who successfully completes BA HEP would be able to analyse the real life situations in the contemporary socio economic scenario
- The student could easily clear competitive examinations like KAS/IAS
- The study of National Movement and significant contributions of great freedom fighters like Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Sardar Vallabai Patel, Bala Gangadhara Thilak and others would make students great nationalists.
- The familiarizing of great economic thinkers would enable the student to contribute significantly towards the economic growth of the society.
- The study of political thinkers and their contributions would enlighten the students towards their constitutional obligations and help them become informed about their Rights and Duties.