

Programme Specific Outcome

BA Optional Kannada, Economics, Geography (KEG)

- The student who successfully completes BA KEG would be able to analyse the real life situations in the contemporary socio economic scenario
- The student could easily clear competitive examinations like KAS/IAS
- She would be able to appreciate the literature written in indigenous language hence, develops better aesthetic sense which helps her to appreciate the literature written in regional language.
- The study of regional writers will help her to develop a love for the regional language, which ultimately makes her more sensible and sensitive.
- Study of Economic thinkers and their contributions would enable the student to appreciate the economic thoughts of great economists like Adam Smith, Malthus, David Ricardo and Amarthya Sen.
- Study of Geography would make the student more environmental conscious by creating awareness on issues like Global warming and water conservation.