

Programme Specific Outcome

BA Political Science, Journalism, Optional Kannada (PJK)

- The student who successfully completes BA (PJK) would be able to analyse the real life situations in the contemporary socio economic scenario
- She would be able to delineate the righteous things in the human activities of every walk of life
- She would be able to appreciate the literature written in indigenous language hence, develops better aesthetic sense.
- The study of regional writers will help her to develop a love for the regional language, which ultimately makes her more sensible and sensitive.
- Study of regional language as Optional subject will help her to develop better communication skills which will have a positive impact on her writing skills as she would be student of Journalism also.
- Her employability in the areas of Journalism and civil services would be very high